

Latin Three – Mr. Sellers – Fall 2011 Semester Exam Study Guide

Chapters 55 – 60

(i.e., these chapters as we have classified them; chapter numbers in the text may not correspond)

Section One – Sight translation – 25 points – Monday, December 12 and Tuesday, December 13 (last regular day of class)

- This is designed to test your overall level of proficiency. It is NOT something that you can study for in advance.
- ca. 15 lines in length. Minus one-fourth of a point for each mistake. A mistake means either the wrong meaning of a word or the wrong grammatical form.
- You may use a Latin-English dictionary for this portion of the exam ONLY. Your textbook glossary does not qualify as a dictionary. If you do not bring a dictionary to the exam, you will have to do your best without one.
- Be sure to use your time wisely on this portion of the exam. Festinā lentē!

Section Two – Scantron – 200 questions, 200 points – Tuesday, December 20

- Vocabulary (meaning and dictionary entry) – Chapters 55 – 60
- Reading comprehension passages from (1) Chapter 58 – Pullo and Vorenus scene from De bello Gallico, (2) Chapter 59 - In Verrem, (3) Chapter 59 – Asconius’ account of the murder on the Via Appia, and (4) Chapter 60 – Catullus
- Sight reading comprehension passages (taken from old NLEs)
- Chapter 55 – Participles / Ablative Absolutes
- Chapter 55 – Infinitives / Indirect Statement
- Chapter 56 – Sequence of Tenses
- Chapter 56 – Subjunctive Conjugations
- Chapter 57 – Subjunctive Clauses
- Chapter 58 – Conditional Clauses
- Chapter 58 – PUFFV Verbs
- Chapter 59 – G / GV / GV-OB
- Chapter 60 – Main Clause Subjunctives
- Assorted chapters – Late Republic – Historical Background

1ST TRIUMVIRATE	RUBICON	OPTIMATES
2ND TRIUMVIRATE	PHARSALUS	POPULARES
CICERO	PHILIPPI	AUGUSTUS
CATILINE	ACTIUM

The exam will make up 25% of your semester average. Be ready for it.