

FESTIVUS MMXI

REGISTRATION

Each participating student should fill out this form and send it to Ms. Kathy Foreman/Rhodes College Dept. of Greek and Roman Studies/2000 North Parkway/Memphis, TN 38112 by November 4 (postmark). The $5.00 registration is due at Rhodes on the 19th.

Name: _____ Teacher: _____

Grade: _____ (Circle: High Middle) School: _____

I will participate in the (check all applicable):

___ Certamen: (Students should sign up in groups of 3-4. Schools may send two teams per level.)

___ High School ___ Junior High

Team members _____

Team Name: _____

___ Animals in the Roman World Mosaic Contest (Using any kind of tesserae, create an image pertaining to animals in the Roman world. The work should be a maximum of 1 square foot. No drawings or paintings.)

___ Video Contest (Create a 5-minute movie about Greek or Roman history, mythology, culture, etc. Movies in English or Latin are welcome, although we will be extra impressed by Latin ones! Students are welcome to work in groups; maximum of 2-4 team members.)

___ English ___ Latine

Group members: _____

___ Food Contest (Cook any type of food from the ancient world using ancient recipes and ingredients as much as possible. Awards will be given for the most authentic as well as for the best-tasting. Store-bought food will be disqualified unless as a complement to the main dish. Recipes and cooking instructions should be provided in the project description.)

___ Roman Costume Contest (Come dressed as your favorite person from ancient history or mythology.)

Mosaic, Food, and Costume contestants should be sure to bring the accompanying project registration with description the morning of the event. Projects without complete forms cannot be judged. We will be particularly impressed with those descriptions that reference ancient texts or other sources. Video contestants should upload their projects to YouTube and email links, scripts, and names of students involved to the Festivus Committee (grs.rhodes@yahoo.com) by Nov. 15.

FESTIVUS MMXI
PROJECT INFORMATION SHEET

Be sure to fill out this form for each event you are participating in. The form should be presented at the registration table at Rhodes the morning of the event.

Name: _____ Teacher: _____

Grade: _____ (Circle: High Middle) School: _____

Competition: Mosaic Costume Food (be sure to include ingredients)

Description of project: